

WINNERS OF THE SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP CHALLENGE 2015

No.	PARTNER	TITEL	TYPE	GRANT	COUNTRY	PROJECT GOAL
2522-01/2016	Dorfmeister Projektentwicklungs GmbH http://zelenoo.com/	Zelenoo – Direct distribution of organic and smallholder fresh agricultural products to end consumers through a collaborative initiative for SME producers in Serbia	Project	€ 50.000	Serbia	The project aims at establishing and consolidating a web-based platform for direct distribution of small- and medium-sized agricultural enterprises' products. It will organize the promotion and sales of agricultural products through an online sales tool, in order to promote local, regional and organic products and strengthen the capacity of SME-farmers to generate income, all the while connecting them to responsible urban consumers.
2522-02/2016	Licht für die Welt https://www.licht-fuer-die-welt.at/	Employment future for persons with disabilities in Bolivia	Project	€ 34.203	Bolivia	In a pilot project in Bolivia, Light for the World aims to include persons with disabilities in an inclusive social business, a dry cleaning company, in order to promote job creation for disabled persons and reduce prejudice against marginalized groups. Together with the local partner EIFODEC, this will create additional jobs as well as strengthen the partner organization's capacity to generate income and over the long run, become more self-sustainable.
2522-03/2016	Karmalaya / Kaliis http://www.kaliis.com/	Technology-based mentoring program for capacity-building of Social Entrepreneurs in developing and emerging countries	Project	€ 100.000	Uganda, Nepal, Mexico	This venture establishes a business programme which will provide trainings, coaching, networking and funding for social businesses in Uganda, Mexico and Nepal. Through a web-based platform, business leaders engaging in corporate volunteering will provide direct coaching and support to microentrepreneurs in these three countries throughout a period of one year.
2522-04/2016	Z2-Innovations/ IB:Neuwirth http://z2innovations.com/	Mobile fruit drying - El secado de frutas móvil	FS	€ 20.000	Cuba	The feasibility will assess the political, social, economic and technical feasibility in order to produce mobile solar fruit drying machines to support small-scale farmers in Cuba to increase productivity and generate additional income through value-added products.

2522-06/2016	Slow Food Convivium Kamptal https://www.facebook.com/slowfoodkamptal	Mobile cheese dairy – an alternative source of income for camel communities in Gujarat, India	FS	€ 20.000	India	In this feasibility study, Slow Food Kamptal supports the camel communities in Northern India to generate additional income and complete the value chain for cheese products from camel milk. The nomads will be able to sell their milk, all the while a mobile cheesemaking device allows Slow Food to produce food for schools, children and organic supermarkets.
2522-07/2016	Joadre / Rolemodelx Impact Group http://joadre.com/	Joadre Network Expansion - Fashion goods production & Retail in Africa	Project	€ 100.000	Nigeria, South African	Joadre aims to integrate women workers in the textile industry of Nigeria and South Africa, in order to reduce their risk of being victims of human trafficking. Their capacities and skills with additional income opportunities through a FairlyMade standard will be increased, all the while Joadre will build on a franchise model across Africa to increase production and consumer awareness.
2522-11/2016	Trainconsulting http://www.trainconsulting.eu/	Feasibility Assessment for Organisational Evolution Accelerator	FS	€ 20.000	India	The feasibility will assess the possibilities to organize an organizational evolution accelerator with the outcome innovations improve the organizational effectiveness of startups in low-income markets, for more efficiency and better implementation of business plans. The feasibility will assess the legal, economic, social and technical feasibility of such an endeavor.
2522-13/2016	The Force Austria / IOG Austria http://www.iog-austria.at/projekte/tailoringtogo/?L=0	Tailoring Togo!	Project	€ 27.647	Togo	TailoringTogo supports the autonomy of women in the textile industry in Kpalimé, Togo, to help them become autonomous, strengthen their economic opportunities and expand a production facility for Batik and textiles.
2522-14/2016	Endeva UG http://www.endeva.org/	Communauts - Making tourism work for all in Uganda	FS	€ 20.000	Uganda	The feasibility study of Endeva supports ecological and sustainable tourism, together with the attached value chains, in Uganda. An inclusive eco-tourism resort is planned which creates job opportunities, promotes local products and allows the local population to find decent jobs.

2522-16/2016	Helioz http://www.helioz.org/	WADI captures UGANDA: A social business solution for Access to Safe Water	Project	€ 99.989	Uganda	Helioz, a social business, aims at providing access to safe and affordable drinking water at household level through a replicable and saleable business model in the districts of Mbarara and Kiruhura in Uganda.
2522-20/2016	ARGE Urban-Senses http://www.urban-senses.org/	URBAN SENSES a worldwide network to create affordable, livable urban space	FS	€ 20.000	Serbia	Urban Senses establishes a global network of local expert groups, who increase citizens' participation in urban planning processes, helping to improve the quality of living in urban areas, increasing democratic participation and supporting good governance practices in city planning and management.
2522-21/2016	Kinderbüro Universität Wien GmbH http://kinder.univie.ac.at/	Khoj-Boxes / Hands-on Science Learning boxes	Project	€ 100.000	India	The project engages in the development, production and global marketing of low-cost, tailor-made hands-on science communication materials for formal and non-formal educational use. It is part of a self-sustained social entrepreneurship project in cooperation with young people and women from rural areas in Gujarat, India, and local initiatives within an international and national network of research organizations and universities.
2522-22/2016	e-Matrix Innovations GmbH http://www.e-matrix.at/	Implementation of an academic e-learning programme in Ghana	Project	€ 73.345	Ghana	In cooperation with the African University College of Communication, the first-ever e-learning bachelor programme in Ghana will be established. In particular the technical capacities of the university are increased, all the while the access to high-quality education through web-based learning is raised.
2522-23/2016	Kairos gGmbH http://www.kairos.or.at/	sunlight modular lighting for off grid regions	Project	€ 49.224	India, Tanzania, Uganda, Kenya, South	Kairos developed a suitable system for rural electrification using local materials. Its key features are a high-end LED and a specifically designed electronic regulator. The latter provides a wide range of different electricity sources to operate a light. It

					Sudan	can be modified further to suit the specific requirements of a particular context using locally sourced materials. The project's aim is a) to expand the technology "sunlight" in Africa, b) implement a pilot in India to assess feasibility, and c) refine its business model to provide affordable lighting solutions to low-income people
2522-24/2016	Gragger Bäckerei / Caritas http://www.gragger-cie.at/cms/index.php https://www.caritas.at/	Back Ma's International	FS	€ 20.000	Burkina Faso, Mozambique, Democratic Republic of Congo, Albania, Serbia, Moldova	A highly-efficient oven, where all raw materials can be burned, saving energy but also adapted to local resources, all the while protecting the end product bread, will lead to the creation of small social business units to support local job creation, create income for partner organizations of Caritas, and engage in skills development for marginalized groups in African countries, the Western Balkans and the Caucasus.